

Portable weather reception...

... with the Mini NAVTEX Weather / Message receiver

World-wide reception of all Navtex-stations

Data displayed:

- via LCD (without PC)
- or with PC (USB-cable is included)

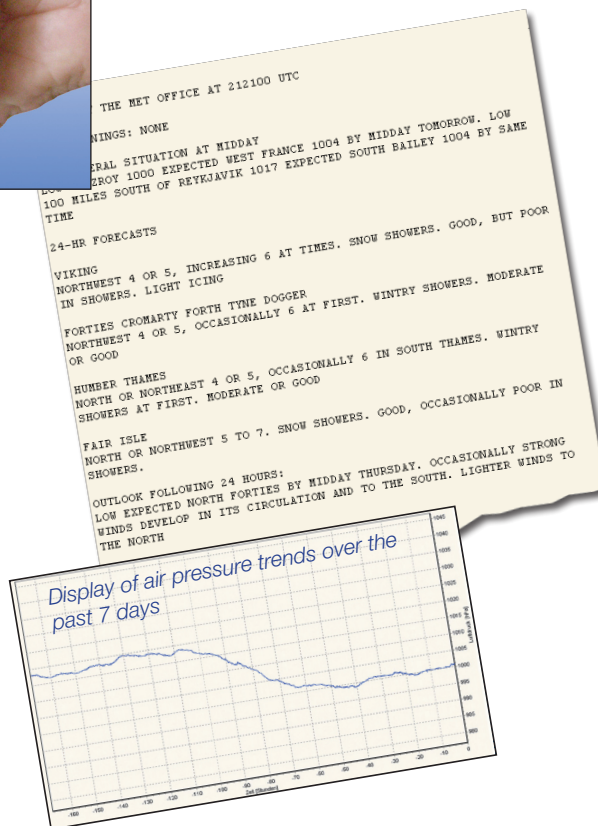

Perfect for yacht charter or office monitoring.

No missed messages, No scribbled weather forecasts!

With barograph and graphic air pressure recording

Messages and the electronic barograph can also be displayed on a PC.

- High performance digital receiver for 490kHz and 518kHz
 Decodes messages on 518/490 KHz (local language and inshore service available on 490).
- Simultaneous reception of both frequencies
- Internal ferrite rod antenna - no external antenna installation required
- LC display with 128x64 pixels resolution
- Automatic message decoding
- The messages are sorted according to message type
- Unwanted stations may be filtered out
- Precision air pressure sensor, resolution 0,1hPa
- Display of the current air pressure and a 3-hour air pressure forecast
- Unit is supplied completely with 12 V power cable
- Multilingual operation (at present German/English)
- Display of air pressure trends over the past 48 hours
- The data of the WIB2D can be transferred to the PC via USB-interface
- Air pressure data is available on the PC over a 7 day period
- Internal battery (upto3 days continuous operation)
 Battery charging through USB lead, 12 V DC cable or optional 230 V charger
- Case dimensions: 103 x 62 x 26,5mm
- Software for Windows 2000, XP, VISTA

Item-No.	WIB2D
Accessories:
Carrying case	38160
230 V AC charger	38154

Further Informations at:

www.weatherinfo.com